SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Monday, December 22d, 1746. [Numb. 662]

FLORENCE, Sept. 6.

APPLICATION having been made to the Regency here, for Leave for the Neapolitan Cavalry to paſs thro' Tuſcany, on their Return to Naples, that Demand has been referred to Vienna, for the Emperor's Orders thereupon; and in the mean while, it having been obſerved, that ſome of the Officers with their Baggage, had entered into the State; the Marquis du Chatelet, who commands the Tuſcan Troops at Piſa, obliged them to return back to the Confines, and has ſent two Companies of Grenadiers, and about 300 Men, to prevent any other from paſſing.

Vienna, Sept 7. Couriers arrive here daily from our Armies and the Allied Courts, whoſe Diſpatches occaſion the holding frequent Councils. We are aſſured, that there will be another Army formed in the Modeneſe, conſiſting of the Regiments of Horſe, which are returned from the Marquis de Botta, the Body of Wavaſſins already arrived in the Mantuan, a ſecond Corps of the ſame Troops, the Regiments detach'd from Prince Lobkowitz's Army, and ſome of thoſe that are quarter'd in Hungary.

Venice, Sept 9 Yeſterday a Courier arrived here from the Proveditor at Verona, with Advice that the Auſtrians were in Poſſeſſion of the City of Genoa, the Keys having been delivered to General Brown by the Deputies ſent from the Senate to meet him without the Gates. That he had demanded very large Contributions, and other Conditions, which they remonſtrated againſt as too ſevere, and prayed that the Execution of them might be ſuſpended 'till ſuch Time as the Will of her Imperial Majeſty could be known; for which Purpoſe they deſired Leave to ſend a Miniſter to Vienna, to throw themſelves at her Majeſty's Feet, and endeavour to obtain a Mitigation of the Conditions demanded of them. Her Imperial Majeſty claiming the Right of Succeſſion to the Dutchy of Gueſtalla, has ſent a Commiſſioner to take Poſſeſſion of it in her Name, upon the Death of the late Duke.

From the London Gazette.

Hague, Sept. 29, N.S. The Reduction of the Town of Genoa is now confirmed by all the Letters from Paris, and ſeems to be a total Conqueſt not only of the Capital, into which Count Brown is ſaid to have entered on the 8th Inſtant, but the whole Territory of that Republick, whoſe Senate was preparing to ſend a ſolemn Deputation, compoſed, according to ſome Letters, of its Doge, and ſix principal Senators, to Vienna. The Remains of the French and Spaniſh Army are ſaid, by the ſaid Paris Letters, to have gained Ventimiglio, and the Infant Don Philip even Nice, in their Retreat, or rather Flight, towards the Frontiers of France. All the Advices we have here from our Army in this Neighbourhood is, that on the 17th Inſt. it made a Motion towards the Valſe, and poſhed its Right Wing within a ſmall Diſtance to Tongres, where M. Saxe had one of the Extremities of his Army.

Whitehall, Sept 16. The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint John Braiſtreet, Eſq; to be Lieutenant Governor of St. John in Newfoundland.

Sept 22. The King has been pleaſed to appoint James Porter, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Ambaſſador, to reſide at the Court of the Grand Signior.

Sept 23 The King has been pleaſed to appoint Henry Grenville, Eſq; to be Captain General and Governor in Chief of his Majeſty's Iſland of Barbados.

LONDON, Sept. 20.

We learn from the Hague, that the Time being expired, in which the Dutch Troops in ſeveral Garriſons were not to act, Orders have been given for 11 Battalions to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march for the Army of the Allies.

We hear that Orders are given to his Majeſty's Ships of War, and to all Privateers, not to take or moleſt any Spaniſh Ships.

The Merchants, from the Proſpect of a Peace with Spain, have ſent great Quantities of Goods to Portugal, to be ready for the Spaniſh Trade, ſo ſoon as that ſhall be permitted, and ſtill greater Quantities are now preparing for that Purpoſe.

We hear that ſeveral 20 Gun Ships are ordered to be built with all Expedition, to row with Oars, and to be built upon a new Model.

Letters from Genoa make it doubtful whether the Infant Don Philip will not take a Voyage to Naples, to viſit the King of the Two Sicilies his Brother, or a Journey to Paris, to wait upon the King of France, his Father in law, rather than purſue the direct Way to Madrid.

Among other Regulations made by the New King of Spain, he has publiſh'd a Decree annulling all the Reverſions of Places, which, after the French Manner, were granted by Philip V. and declaring that thoſe only, who are found to have the neceſſary Qualifications, ſhall enjoy the Benefit of their Grants, in Preference to other Candidates.

The City of Namur is certainly taken, and all the Garriſon made Priſoners of War, except two thouſand Dutch; who, we hear, found Means to make their Eſcape before the Capitulation was agreed on.

Advices from the Hague intimate, that the Behaviour of ſome People in the two laſt Seiges affords room for various Conjectures, not much to their Reputation.

M. d'Argenſon told Count Weſſenaer at parting, 'That poſſibly ſome Powers might be in no haſte for a Peace, and if they 'were not, it ſhould not be forced upon them; that it was true 'his Maſter wiſhed it, but would ſtay 'till other Folks wiſhed it 'as well as he.' It is believed this relates to the Courts of Vienna and Turin, of whoſe Plenipotentiaries we hear nothing with Certainty.

Before the Surender of Namur the Gariſon made a Sally with 800 Men; but were driven back with great Loſs.

The French and Spaniards in their Retreat thro' the State of Genoa, took no Account of their Baggage, but made the beſt of their Way both by Land and Water.

Letters from Paris mention, the Surrender of Savona to the Piedmonteſe, and ſay, that ſix Engliſh Men of War contributed to the making of this Conqueſt. The ſame Letters add, that the Infant Don Philip was arrived at Antibes.

Several Imperial Generals went to Genoa with the Deputies that were ſent by Count Botta, and they treat the Genoeſe with great Civility. The Enemy were cloſely purſued in their Flight by the Auſtrian Detachments, who pick'd up a great deal of their Equipage and Baggage on the Road.

By Letters of the 8th from Mantua, we hear, that no Advice was come of the Surrender of Gavi, which continues to be batter'd by 16 Pieces of Cannon, and 10 Mortars. A great many noble Genoeſe are ſaid to be in the Place, who encourage the Gariſon to make a vigorous Defence, and the Commandant is a French Officer, who has engaged in the Genoeſe Service.

There is not yet any Account, that the Senate of Genoa have made their Submiſſion to the King of Sardinia; but we are only told, that they have put themſelves entirely into the Hands of her Imperial Majeſty.

Amongſt the French and Spaniſh Priſoners taken during this laſt Campaign in Italy, it is remarkable that there are 2200 Officers, many of them of Diſtinction.

There is Advice from the Hague, dated the 23d Inſtant, N.S. that the City of Namur ſurrender'd to the French on the 19th Inſtant. The French had brought againſt it upwards of 200 Pieces

Pieces of Battering Cannon, and ſeemed to be determined not to leave one Stone upon another, if the Garriſon attempted to hold out obſtinately, Count Colyear, the Governor had leave to retire on Account of his great Age.

Some private Letters from Italy ſay, that the Preliminaries for an Accommodation between the combined Crowns and the Republick of Genoa were ſettled, if not ſigned; by which that State agrees to yield the Marquiſate of Final to the King of Sardinia, the Town and Diſtrict of Sarzana to the Emperor as Grand Duke of Tuſcany, and conſents alſo to pay a large Sum of Money towards the Expences of the War.

And by Letters received from the Hague we learn, that an Account was arrived there of General Brown's having entered the City of Genoa on the 7th of Sept N S at Night, and planted Soldiers at all the City Gates, in order to prevent any Money or valuable Effects being removed; that the Senate was in the greateſt Confuſion imaginable, and had ſent out Orders to all the Governors of the ſeveral Fortreſſes, to deliver them up to the Imperial Troops; and that, tho' the ſtricteſt Orders were given to prevent plundering, yet 'twas found impoſſible to hinder the Soldiers from coming in for a little Booty.

The Albany Sloop of War, Capt. Colby, who ſail'd Expreſs from Louiſbourg the 7th of July, to Admiral Warren at Boſton, was taken the 19th following by the Caſtor a French Man of War, and carried into Jamaica, where all the Albany's Men were left among the Indians, except the Captain, Lieutenant, Purſer, and Surgeon. The Caſtor and Aurora arriv'd at Breſt the 22d of Auguſt
